

The World Celebrates QE II 90th Birthday

Throughout 2016 the nations of the world are celebrating Queen Elizabeth II's 90th Birthday, including in philatelic tributes.

As the representative of scores of postal administrations, including many who have ties to the British Commonwealth, the Inter-Governmental Philatelic Corp. was in an unsurpassed position to bring together a worldwide Omnibus issue in which the citizens of participating nations could honor 'their Queen.' Shown here are two examples from the IGPC Queen Elizabeth II 90th Birthday Omnibus.

The QE II 90th Birthday philatelic celebration is reminiscent of the 100th Birthday Celebration for the Queen Mother, and is another in a continuing series of Royal Family issues. For details on these and other Royal Family issues go to the IGPC website, www.igpc.com
